

TripleScore

Dunk. Splash. Repeat.

The module in action:

Whether as a single game or in a duel, the TripleScore brings a classic ball sport to the water. The game idea is simple but ingenious – aim, throw and score directly from the water. Standing in front of the module, players throw balls into three differently placed scoring holes. Thanks to the ball return tracks, gameplay flows seamlessly, as the balls are quickly and automatically returned to the players in the water after each throw.

Your benefits:

With its popular ball-throwing game principle, the TripleScore appeals to a wide target group and offers guests an engaging, interactive experience, especially in pools and smaller water areas. The balls roll back after being thrown, which increases the dynamics of the game and reduces the supervision required. In addition, the compact module is quick and easy to install, allowing for quick and flexible deployment between other activities or for special events.
